Read the poem carefully and answer the questions (36-39) below :

I am that man with helmet made of thorn
Who wandered naked in the desert
place,
Wept, with the sweating sky, that I was born
And wore disaster in my winter face.

I am that man who asked no hate, nor pity.

I am that man, five-wounded, on the tree.

I am that man, walking his native
city,

Hears his dead comrade cry,

Remember me!

I am that man whose brow with blood was wet,
Returned, as Lazarus, from the dead
to live.

I am that man, long counselled to forget,

Facing a fearful victory, to forgive :

And seizing the two words, with the sharp sun

Beat them, like sword and plough-share, into one.
